

International Colloquium
Organized by PSL-IRIS Global Studies and CESPRA

This conference wishes to expand compromise understanding in its transnational dimension, little addressed by present studies, in order to test the relevance of a cultural and global approach to compromise.

What are the normative assumptions and solutions proposed to develop morally right or wrong compromise typologies?

Can we develop a universal ethics of compromise or does compromise vary depending on the socio-cultural history of a country? To what extent is culture relevant in shaping types and norms of compromise?

This symposium examines theoretical issues and practices associated with compromise by adopting a global perspective.

To do so, it will bring together the contributions of European, American and Asian researchers around the following three areas:

- 1) Compromise Standards
- 2) Cultures of Compromise
- 3) Global Governance and Compromise

Scientific committee

Luc Foisneau (CNRS, CESPRA, France)
Emmanuel Picavet (Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne, Nosophi, France)
Samia Ferhat (Paris-Nanterre, France)
Julie Saada (Sciences Po Paris, France)
Anne Bazin (Sciences Po Lille, France)
Christian Thuderoz (Insa, Lyon University, France)

Contact

assayag.laure@gmail.com
luc.foisneau@ehess.fr

INTERNATIONAL COLLOQUIUM ON GLOBAL ETHICS OF COMPROMISE

Copyright: 'The Cobalt Compromise' by Jean-Pierre Decor

7-8 MARCH 2019
EHES, AUDITORIUM FRANÇOIS
FURET 105 BOULEVARD
RASPAIL

CONFERENCE SCHEDULE

Thursday 7 March

9.00 Registration and coffee

9.15 Welcoming remarks by Vincent Duclert, CESPRA director

9.20 Opening remarks by Laure Assayag, PhD Student (CESPRA)

Panel 1 'Norms of Compromise'

Chair: Luc Foisneau (National Center for Scientific Research, France)

9.30 - 10.30 Véronique Zanetti (Bielefeld University, Germany): «No Best Answer. Principled Compromise and Checkerboard solution»

10.30 - 11.30 Elise Rouméas (Oxford University, United Kingdom): «The Procedural Value of Compromise»

11.30 - 11.45 Coffee break

11.45 - 12.45 Sandrine Baume (Lausanne University, Switzerland): «Are There Any Achilles' Heels in Compromises? A Typology of Criticism against Political Compromise and Possible Counterarguments»

12.45 - 14.00 Lunch

Panel 2 'Compromise and Disagreement'

Chair: Emmanuel Picavet (Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne, France, chaire Ethique et finance du Collège d'étude mondiales, FMSH, France)

14.00 - 15.00 Martijn Boot (University College Groningen, Netherlands): «Compromise between Competing Incommensurable Values»

15.00 - 16.00 Nikolaï Abramovich (Paris 4 Paris-Sorbonne, France): «Stuart Hampshire: Procedural Justice, Conflict and Evil»

16.00 - 16.30 Coffee break

16.30 - 17.30 Malgorzata Dereniowska (Gdansk University, Poland): «Sustainability Justice, Conflicts, and Ethics of Compromise»

20.00 Conference dinner

Friday 8 March

9.00 - 9.30 Registration and coffee

Panel 3 'Asian Perspectives on Compromise'

Chair: Valérie Niquet (Fondation pour la recherche stratégique, France)

9.30 - 10.30 Yen-Tu Su (Academia Sinica, Taiwan): «Transitional Justice and Political Compromise in Taiwan»

10.30 - 11.30 Makoto Kurokawa (University of Hawai'i at Manoa, Hawai'i): «Nationalism and the Island Dispute in the East China Sea - Comparison of the Situation between Taiwan-Japan and China-Japan»

11.30 - 11.45 Coffee break

11.45 - 12.45 Takeshi Morisato (Free University of Brussels, Belgium): «Metaphysics of Compromise: Kyoto School Perspectives and their Ethical Implications»

12.45 - 14.00 Lunch

Panel 4 'Global Governance and Compromise'

Chair: Ninon Grangé (Université Paris 8, France)

14.00 - 15.00 Alin Fumurescu (Houston University, United States): «Political Culture, Identity Politics, and Political Compromise in Comparative Perspective»

15.00 - 16.00 Urs Marti (Zürich University, Switzerland): «No Compromise! Global Politics in the Age of new Nationalism»

16.00 - 16.30 Closing remarks by Luc Foisneau

17.00 Cocktail reception